The Print Club of Cleveland

June 5, 2015

Dear Friend:

We would like to invite you to support the Department of Prints at the Cleveland Museum of Art by becoming a sponsor of the Print Club of Cleveland's Fine Print Fair. This will be our 31st Fine Print Fair, Cleveland's largest and most comprehensive print marketplace that attracts more than 1,000 visitors with a passion for art and interest in printmaking and print collecting.

The fair will be held at the Cleveland Museum of Art September 24 to 27 in the Ames Family Atrium. The preview party will be Thursday, September 24, and the fair will be open to the public Friday through Sunday. Dr. Jane Glaubinger, Curator of Prints at the Cleveland Museum of Art, has selected fifteen outstanding dealers from across the country who will offer five centuries of prints, drawings, and fine art posters in a broad range of prices. Throughout the weekend there will be printmaking demonstrations, lectures, and other programs to stimulate interest in the creative process of printmaking and the art of collecting fine prints.

Our sponsor fundraising goal this year is $60,000. You can help by renewing your sponsorship or becoming a new sponsor. Your name, contact information, and message will appear in the program booklet that is given to the 1,000+ enthusiasts who visit the Fine Print Fair. This event, which is free to the public, is well publicized in national and local newspapers and magazines, and on the radio.

We look forward to your support of the Print Department at the Cleveland Museum of Art. Please complete the enclosed sponsorship forms and return them to Melissa Grannetino, Engagement Specialist, by Friday, July 3, to ensure your placement in our program book. If you have questions or would like to further discuss the various sponsorship opportunities, please contact Melissa at 216-707-2579 or mgrannetino@clevelandart.org.

Sincerely,
